

CHILDREN SAFE UGANDA MARCH 2022 REPORT

Beloved Partners and Friends of CSU,

Warm Greetings from every one here, hope you are all doing well. Am glad to share a brief on what transpired at CSU in the month of March 2022.

first and much exciting is , all our children have been okay and we appreciate God for this.

The CSU leadership team visited Ekisa ministries in Jinja, an organization dealing with children with disabilities. The purpose of the visit was to find out how CSU can benefit from their services of dealing with disabilities. It was amazing to see how children with severe brain damage were being taken care of. I am happy to report that after this visit staff were empowered with various skills which are now benefiting children like Nabikolo Catherine.

The purpose of the training was to equip staff with skills of managing Children with disabilities. Staff learnt some of the predisposing factors, how to detect early signs of disability among others.

Still on Cathy's health, professionals were identified who would work on Cathy.

Am happy report that from all the previous visits and consultations in regards to Catherine's' treatment, both Ekisa Ministries and Mukisa foundation, provided hope for the possibility of Catherine being to walk in future provided that she gets the recommended therapies.

We are grateful that Ruth Finken who pledged to financially support the two months routine occupational therapist visits plus paying the costs for the neurologist therapies for Nabikolo Catherine, besides buying the necessary equipments to use.

On matters of management and administration, we successfully held our second Annual General Meeting which was also attended by the ZBK chairman (Niko) via Zoom. A number of issues were discussed but majorly was the financial sustainability of CSU.

Conclusion

In my first paragraphs, I have used the phrase TEAM. Yes! I can stress it over and over again that the TEAM at CSU is amazing. I count all the achievements reported here on the commitment and outstanding enthusiasms exhibited by the huge TEAM at CSU on a daily basis.

The support Staff, the board members, the volunteers, the partners every one has played a great role and I say thank you.

Our prayers are for the same spirit to keep shining and more keep to join us and be able to change a story for a child in need out there.
